Dragon Heart, a Story of Dragons

Point of View: Skylar

This is set a week after the events of the second film, which ended with Hiccup and Toothless defeating Drago Bludvist. Drago returned home, but found that not everything was staying the same.

Drago returned home upon his bewilderbeast and found me sat on his throne. "Whoâ€¦ are you? And what are you doing in my domain?" "Drago, my name is Skylar. I am taking over here. I trust you got the Dragons?' 'Not quite." "What do you mean by not quite?" "Iâ€¦ was defeated." "What- by the other Bewilderbeast?"

"No- by that young Viking kid." "What- the blonde girl?" "No- the leader of them. He rode upon a Night-Fury." "You can't get the staff these days. Your court is not very impressed. Court, everyone who thinks that Drago should have his Bewilderbeast taken off of him and he should be thrown into the darkest dungeon on this island, raise your hands."

About Â¾ of the court raised their hands. "Good. Guards, take him out of my sight." "What? You cannot take my Dragon off of me." "Remember that the Bewilderbeast didn't belong to you in the first place. Now take him from my sight." He was then removed, and my guest arrived. "Sire, your guest is here." "Show him in."

He then came in. His name was Dagurâ€¦ Dagur the Deranged. "Why hello there Dagur." "I'll cut to the chase- why did you want to speak to me old friend?" "I'm sure you remember all the times that you tried and failed to take Hiccup's Night-Fury." "Don't remind me- I have literally tried everything that doesn't involve hurting him, and plenty of things that do involve hurting him."

"I'm aware. But this is your chance at redemption." "Excuse me, but if you're going to give me a lecture, please may I take a seat?" "Guards, get Dagur the best chair we have." They then brought one in. "Right- I have a plan to let you gain everything you want- his Night-Fury, and this nice throne." "You really want my help."

"Yep. Are you in." "You know what you're doing?" "Why do you think I've been away for so long. Apart from the fact that I was banished for being even more deranged than you." "Really- you're starting that again." "Just answer the question, arguing can wait." "Fine- I'm in." "Good."

"Right- your problem is you're not focused. We need to focus, but not on Hiccup." "Why?" "He's good at defending himself. He's got a load of weapons. We need to focus on another one of the Dragon Riders- the next strongest." "You mean his bird." "Yeah." "I'm listening." I then talked Dagur through the details of the plan.

The next day, Dagur started the plan by flying over to Berk with his new dragon that he'd recently obtained, (a Thunderdrum). Meanwhile, I was lurking nearby with the Bewilderbeast that I'd taken off of Drago. Dagur was quickly noticed by the Dragon Riders, who were on a training mission. "Not you again.'

"Hiccup- how are you my brother?" 'We're not brothers.' 'He'd rather have Snotlout as a brother.' 'Thanks Astrid.' "Aww, Hiccup's girlfriend coming to his aid." 'Shut up Dagur.' "No seriously- she loves you so. Pity she's delusional." 'Seriously? You're calling her delusional? Have you looked in the mirror recently?' "Aww, sticking up for her now. Give me your Night-Fury and I'll leave you alone brother."

'We're not brothers, and I'm not giving you anything.' "Pity that. Now my Dragon, blow them away." The Thunderdrum then released a massive Sonic Blast, which had Snotlout and Fishlegs holding onto the bottom of their dragons. 'Stormfly, single spine shot.' Stormfly then released a spine shot that the Thunderdrum reversed it, leaving Astrid to quickly dodge.

Dagur then flew off. 'I'm going to get him this time.' 'Don't do anything stupid Astrid.' 'Trust me on this one.' She then flew after Dagur, and I set off from my lookout perch with my Bewilderbeast. Now the Bewilderbeast has an ability to control all Dragons. But I had a secret weapon- a probe that could amplify a Dragon's power.

As Astrid and Dagur passed, I got Astrid's attention. 'Hey you, over here." She then looked around, and I threw the cylindrical probe at her, and it stuck to the back of her neck. 'What's that?' "Now my Dragon, do your thing." My bewilderbeast then started to control Stormfly, and the probe amplified it, affecting Astrid.

'Whaâ€¦ what's happening to me? I can't think straight, and I'm feeling woozy.' Shortly afterwards, she lost consciousness, and Stormfly was free to follow the Bewilderbeast back. "Good job Dagur."

"I nearly died." "Not the first time." "I want my Night-Fury." "I know, and you'll get it. Now fly behind her to make sure the probe stays on."

"Why is this probe so important?" "Wouldn't you like to know? Let' just say that it's a crucial part of this plan." "Why do you bother with plans- I don't." "Look how far that got you. If you actually want your Night-Fury, you'll follow the plan. Now get behind her. If the probe falls off, fly past her and stick it back on."

Soon afterwards, we got back to the Island that we'd claimed. Stormfly, still under the influence of the Bewilderbeast, with her eyes narrowed, walked with us, and we took Astrid, still unconscious. We threw them in separate cells and left them for the night. "So why exactly is she unconscious?" "The probe contains an amplifier that makes the Bewilderbeast's power work on her as well. So she'll wake up, and our voice will sound like the Bewilderbeast's. Therefore, she'll do as we say. Understand?"

"No." "It'll be easier to show you." "When do I get my Night-Fury?" "Soon." "When's soon!" "Don't shout, you'll wake her up too soon." We then went to bed for the night, leaving Astrid and Stormfly in their respective prisons.

The next day, I went back down there with Dagur, and Astrid was on her knees, eyes half-closed. "Hi Astrid." 'Where am I?' "Astrid, you are loyal to us. Hiccup turned on you; they turfed you out of the Dragon Riders. You're loyal to us." The Bewilderbeast then roared the same message at her and Stormfly, and she got up.

"Let's go Astrid." 'Yes my liege.' We then left. "Dagur, you know your sister Heather?" "How do you know about her?" "A friend mentioned it. Anyway- you know where she is?" "I know she hangs out around Dragon Edge." "Astrid, take us to the Dragon Edge area." 'Dragon Edge, yes.' She then flew off on Stormfly, with me and Dagur behind her.

"Why are you wearing a piece of leather as a shirt?" "Don't agree with wearing Dragon Skin. Do you understand what this probe does now?" "Yeah, but is she going to keep it on for eternity?" "No- after a week, the bewilderbeast and me will be able to control her anyway." "Do I get my Night-Fury?" "If you don't stop asking, I'll order Astrid and Stormfly to impale you on the nearest cliff."

"I'll take a rain check on that." Just then, we bumped into Heather. 'Oh, hey Astrid, hang on- what are you doing with Dagur?' "Sister." "Go away Dagur." 'Stormfly, single spine shot.' Stormfly then knocked Heather off of her Dragon. "Stormfly, retrieve." Stormfly then dove down towards Heather, and Astrid caught her hair.

'What's up with you Astrid?' "Astrid, put this on her." I then threw Astrid another probe, and she placed it on Heather's forehead, knocking her out instantly. "Astrid, let's go." 'Yes.' We then went again. "How many probes do you have?" "Only one more." "Any plans for it?" "Of course." "Go on." "We need the Book of Dragons as well. For that, we need Fishlegs."

"How are we" "Astrid." I then flew next to Astrid. "Astrid, we're going back to Dragon Edge." 'Yes.' We then flew back there. That night, I sat down with Astrid and let her hair down before starting to brush it out and rebraid it. "Astrid, you and me are a team." "Yeah- we are." "Remember- you don't need a man- you don't need anyone to make you stronger Astrid."

'I understand- I now see it clearly.' "You wish to join us forever." 'Yes- I do.' We then hugged, and I finished braiding her hair. I then showed her a large ruby. "This is the Dragon Heart. You will take this and it will empower you. Empower you to follow my will. And once we have Fishlegs and all the Dragons, then we'll deal with Dagur- he will not take our throne." 'Yes. We will rule together.'

The next morning, me and Astrid met up with Dagur and Heather. "Dagur, come here." "You can't boss me around like Astrid." Astrid then came out, wearing a new leather headband. "Meet my queen Dagur. And Heather." Heather got on one knee and bowed down to her. "My queen, how may I serve you?"

She then gave an arrogant look. "Today, we take the Book of Dragons. We also recruit Fishlegs." "I liked you better when you were unconscious." "Be careful what you say- I am a queen now. One wrong move and" "Calm down Astrid- we deal with that later. Let's fly off." We then flew off for Berk.

It took about 20 minutes to get there. When we got there, we formulated a plan. "Astrid, you will go down there and tell them you're back having got rid of Dagur for good." "I will." Her and Stormfly then landed, as I kept an eye on her, and Dagur and Heather kept back.

'Astrid- I've not seen you in days. Where have you been?' "Sorry Hiccup- I've dealt with Dagur once and for all." 'Really? How?' "Me and Stormfly chased him to the edge of the archipelago and scared him with spine shots. I told him that if he ever puts a finger into the archipelago again, he'll be imprisoned for the rest of his life or 1000 years- whichever lasts longer.'

'Astrid, that's brilliant.' 'Thanks." 'So, what took you so long?' "Do you know how long it takes to get to the end of the archipelago? Besides- I met Heather on the way back. She was pleased about me getting rid of Dagur.' 'I'm sure she was. Mum wants you to come for a meal tonight.' "Sure. Do you happen to know where Fishlegs is?"

'Yeah- he went out about half an hour ago. I think he said he was going back to Dark Deep to check on the Gronckles that he helped rescue.' "Great- I'll be back later." Astrid then got on Stormfly, but Hiccup stopped her flying away. 'He'll be back soon- why don't you stay a while? I got a load of chicken for Stormfly.'

"Filled her up on the way back." 'Come on- you've just got back.' She then tried to fly off on Stormfly, but Hiccup wouldn't let her. 'Get off of me." 'Please stay Astrid- you've just got back- we've been out searching for you.' "But." 'No buts- just stay.' Astrid then kicked Hiccup off of her leg. "I'm going to see Fishlegs- I found out something new about Razorwhips and I figured he'd want to know."

She then flew off, and after a well-mannered amount of time, I followed her. "Plan's all going well so far." She just smiled. "I'm quite enjoying being a queen. I can do whatever I like now." When we approached Dark Deep, she started wing-walking on top of Stormfly, and then leapt off of Stormfly, landing on her feet right next to Fishlegs, and creating a dust cloud.

'Astrid- Hiccup's been' "I know- I've had the lecture. I wanted to show you something Heather gave me." 'Heather?' "Yeah- met her on the way back into the archipelago after driving off Dagur." She then passed Fishlegs the probe. 'What is this?' "She said that if you stick it on the back of your neck, then you become able to speak to your Dragons on a whole new level. Fancy giving it a go?"

'Sure.' Astrid then stuck it on the back of Fishlegs' neck. As he bent down to try and test it out, Astrid gave me the thumbs up and the Bewilderbeast did its thing, controlling him within seconds. "Fishlegs, let's go." We then all went and went back to Dragons Edge. When we did, we put Fishlegs and Meatlug in cells, and Astrid gave me an idea.

"You know, he used to call himself Thor Bonecrusher when he was accidentally hypnotised once. He really had the hots for me." "Good idea." "Sounds better than Fishlegs Ingerman." "Yeah." "Am I allowed to do this one?" "Sure- as long as you have the Dragon Heart, you'll be able to tap into the power of the Bewilderbeast when it's nearby."

She then went to work. "Fishlegs, from now on, your name will no longer be Fishlegs Ingerman, it will be Thor Bonecrusher. You will be a ruthless warrior, able to take down any opponent in battle, with incredible endurance. Fishlegs is your former name; you don't want to go back to that. You are my sworn protector."

She then came back. "Is it going to work?" "Of course it is. How about when we take all the Dragons, us two live at Dragon Edge?" "Yeah- sounds good." "Good- glad we're in agreement. Now all we need to do is leave him for a couple of days, then we'll be ready for the big finale." "Can't wait to see the looks on their faces."

Meanwhile, back on Berk:

'Right everybody, stop messing around. Astrid's gone missing again, and this time, Fishlegs has gone as well.' 'Where were they again Hiccup?' 'Snotlout, I've been through this. Fishlegs was on Dark Deep checking up on those Gronckles he saved, and Astrid flew off in that direction, saying she had something she wanted to tell Fishlegs about Razorwings.'

'Acting strangely? Like she wanted to get away?' 'Yeah- she couldn't wait to get going. She even missed an important meal with my Mum. She's really disappointed about it.' 'Isn't it obvious then?' 'Is it?' 'Yeah- acting strangely, vanishing for days without a trace, ignoring you, trying to get away, it all makes sense.'

Snotlout then whispered his idea into Hiccup's ear. 'Snotlout, that is disgusting. She wouldn't do that.' 'She wouldâ€¦ wait- what wouldn't she do?' 'What Snotlout just said to him.' 'Oh right, makes sense now. So if she has done what Snotlout said to him, how do we prove that she's done what Snotlout said to him?'

'Covert operations.' 'Snotlout, you have Hookfang- he couldn't hide behind a mountain, never mind some rocks.' 'Never said me. If you want to find out, you need to see it yourself.' 'Do I have back-up?' 'Sure- not like I have anything better to do today.' 'Great. Twins, you in?' 'In what?' 'Coming to help me.'

'Sure- whatever you want help with. Hey sis- what does he want help with?' 'I don't know, sounds fun though.' They then head-butted each other. 'Right- let's go. While I keep an eye on them, you lot stay back.' They then flew off to Dark Deep to try and find Astrid and FIshlegs. Thankfully, by the time they'd set off, we were already in Dragon's Edge, and they didn't try to find us.

A couple of days later, we set off to complete our plan, with myself and Astrid flying ahead of Heather, then Thor Bonecrusher, and then Heather and Dagur. "Right- the plan is" "We get me my Night-Fury." Astrid then turned around on Stormfly and fired a warning shot of spines at Dagur. "Watch it- you nearly took my head off there."

"If you say one more word, I will take your head off. And then I'll present it on a spear to your entire Berserker clan. Understood?" "Let's not be too hasty." "Astrid, you can deal with him later." "Of course. Just to check- the Bewilderbeast won't cause problems for Stormfly?" "No- she's doing what we want her to anyway. Got your axe?"

"Especially sharpened to make sure the plan comes to fruition." "Thor, you know what to do?" "If they cause us problems, we destroy them. I won't let them harm the queen." "Heather, you ok there?" "I see Berk. 30â•° north." "Good job Heather." "Let me guess- you want me to act as a decoy?" "No Dagur- we want you to keep out of our way."

"Why?" "Because it's been proven that you are incapable of executing a plan properly. Astrid is going to go ahead along with Heather." Astrid and Heather then landed, right in front of the Dragon Academy. 'Astrid- what's been wrong with you lately?' "Shut up- this is an invasion. Give us all your dragons voluntarily, or we will take them by force."

"We are the hunters- you are our prey. Queen Astrid requires my help." 'Queen Astrid, invasion, what is this- a joke?' "You wish. I am a queen now, and we're taking all of your dragons." 'Listen to sense?' "I only listen to the mighty Bewilderbeast." She then laughed as I made an appearance on the Bewilderbeast.

'Astrid? What the hell has happened to you?' "I am a queen now- with Stormfly by my side, and a Bewilderbeast to call upon, I will reign victorious. Stormfly, show him what I mean." Stormfly then shot out several spines, one of which bounced wildly off of Hiccup's riding armour. Snotlout then came in.

'Leave this to me Hiccup.' 'Snotlout- you're helping me.' 'I'm not just doing it for you. I don't care that she's our mate- she's threatening Berk. Hookfang- flame her.' Hookfang then released a jet of flame, but Fishlegsâ€¦ I mean Thor and Metalug, got in the way to protect Astrid. 'Fishlegs?' "My name is Thor Bonecrusher. And you tried to hurt Queen Astrid- that is a crime we cannot forgive. Meatlug, spew."

Meatlug spewed lava from her mouth, but it didn't affect Hookfang much. "Windshear, your turn." Windshear fired multiple spines at Hookfang, but Hookfang flew above them. Dagur then turned up. 'Dagur- you're working with Dagur?' "Not for much longer. Stormfly, single spine shot at Dagur." Stormfly spun around and knocked Dagur off of his Thunderdrum, with him landing hard on a cliff-face.

'What was all of that?' "He was working with us. But we used him. Don't pretend you didn't enjoy seeing what I just did to him." 'Right- you asked for it. Come on bud- Plasma blast.' Toothless went to give Astrid a plasma blast, but the bewilderbeast stopped it by roaring, distracting Toothless. "Remember- all must listen to the alpha."

Toothless wouldn't listen to the bewilderbeast though. "Sorry, but looks like you imprisoned Drago too hastily- he didn't get to tell you that Toothless has bcome an Alpha as well. And an Alpha cannot control another Alpha. But as you said, all must listen to the alpha." "Right- everyone retreat. This isn't over Hiccup- this is not over yet."

Just as we flew away, we were stopped by a cloaked figure atop a Titan Wing Monsterous Nightmare. "And who might you be?" 'I might ask you the same thing.' Astrid then moved in front. "Whoever you are, get out of my way." 'Astrid, you've grown a lot.' "Who are you- I don't know you."

He then took his cloak off. 'No way.' "Astrid, is that who I" "It is." 'Hello Astrid, long time no see.' "If it isn't my very own Uncle- Fearless Finn Hofferson."

"What are you doing here?" 'My my- you've grown since I last saw you.' "I thought you were dead." 'Well I'm not, so let's move on.' "I don't need you anymore. I need nobody." 'Why are you with them then?' "That lot down there? They're just a bunch of traitors. Stormfly, let's go." Astrid and Stormfly then flew off, with the rest of us in hot pursuit.

"Can I ask you something?" "After you tell me what's going on down there." "Finn Hofferson- my uncle. Looked after me until I was 6, then scared off by a Flightmare. Past 14 years I've been defending his honour saying he was a brave and fearless warrior, but I secretly thought he was no longer alive. Now my question- where we reside, where exactly is it?"

"The Caliban Cliffs. North-Eastern Berk." "Thought I recognised it."

"You're still dedicated to the cause?" "Of course- I will always remain dedicated to the cause. Finn returning changes nothing- I made up my mind. Now I want to destroy Hiccup even more. What's going to happen to Dagur?" "Who cares?"

We then landed and I put my hand on her forehead, as she closed her eyes. "Astrid, Dagur is inconsequential to you now. He is merely another enemy, and should he get in our way, we will destroy him." "Destroy himâ€¦ sounds good. Destruction is good." "That's right. Nobody can hold you back anymore." "Nobody. Anyone who tries will fail. Because the crown of the alpha is mine and mine alone."

"That's right. Let's regroup." "Probably best." Dagur then came up behind us, on another Dragon- a Thunderdrum. "Ha- you can't get rid of me that easily! Now just give me the crown, and my sister, and we can part on good terms." 'You little" "Leave it Astrid." "Fine. It would be fun to destroy you myself, but I know something that would be even more fun."

She then looked over at Heather. "Heather, take him down." "Affirmative. Windshear, annihilate." Windshear shot fire at Dagur, who backed off. "I'll be back!" "Of course you will be. I wouldn't advise it though." Dagur then flew off, with Stormfly firing spines at him in the process. "Let's move out- he doesn't matter."

When we got back, me and Astrid had a chat about what to do next. "What do you want to do now then?" "Apart from hail you my liege?" "Apart from that." "Destroy the dragon riders. One by one." "Sounds good to me. Whatever you want to do." "They held me back, they made me weak. I refuse to be a weak girl anymore- I'm a warrior, offspring of Thor, and destroyer of dragon riders. I am Fearless Astrid Hofferson. And unlike my uncle, I am fearless. Speaking of my uncle, I want to deal with him as well."

"We need to split our resources." "Me and Heather will go after Snotlout." "Me and Bonecrusher will stay here at base- Dagur and Drago are both sure to try something." "Drago? Who's he?" "Previous resident here. I drove him off after he failed in his job to rescue you." "He tried to destroy all of Berk." "If Berk gets damaged, so be it."

"Meaning." "You live here from now on, with us. When we have conquered the dragon riders, Berk will be defenceless against us. Once we've taken over, we will have Berk rebuilt, and statues of us two will go up in the centre of Berk. You wouldn't disobey your Liege would you now?" "No my Liege- Astrid is your vessel to control how you wish. I will never disobey."

"Good girl." I then unbraided her hair again. "You know Astrid, we should do this more often." "As I say- I am your vessel my liege. My spirit is strong and my mind is yours. Control me how you wish- you are able to do that." "U just want you to reach your potential- you would never have done that with them."

I then gave her a figure that looked like Hiccup. "Astrid, show your loyalty to me by destroying this figure." She then took it, and started tearing it limb from limb. "Can't wait until I do this to the real thing." "You're pulsating with evil." "And it feels good to be evil." "You're ready to destroy them now." "Yes my liege."

She then got up, before kneeling down to me on one knee with her head tucked. "I shall do whatever you wish for me to do, whatever it may be. I am yours and yours alone, and to die for you would be to die a noble death- my job is to protect you." "No- your job is to be the Queen. Heather and Thor's jobs are to serve and protect you."

"Thank you. I see clearer than I have done for a long time. I'm indebted to you for that." The next morning, Astrid briefed Thor and Heather. "Right- today we have work to do. Heather, you and me will target Snotlout of the dragon riders. We pick them off one by one, day by day, starting with him. Thor, you and my liege will protect base. If anything happens here, send Terror Mail."

"My queen, you can rely on us to protect your honour." "Good. Heather, let's go." "Understood." They then left, leaving me and Thor to defend our territory. About 20 minutes later, Fearless Finn arrived. "Go away." 'I want to see Astrid." "She doesn't want to see you." "At least tell me where she is." "Fine- Madman's Gully. She's catching some fish for us to eat."

"Thanks." As he turned around, I nudged Bonecrusher. He then got on Meatlug, who was still controlled solely by the Bewilderbeast. "Meatlug, spew." Meatlug then spat out lava which Finn had to dodge, before he flew off. "Should I go after him?" "No- he's looking in completely the wrong direction anyway. Going to the Madman's Gully, all he'll find at this time of year is a load of eels or the Flightmare if he's unlucky.'

A while later, Astrid and Heather arrived back, with Snotlout as a prisoner. "Thought that keeping him hostage would allow us to deal with the rest of them. Besides- I've always wanted to feed him to a Screaming Death." "Finn came looking for you earlier. We told him that you'd gone to Madman's Gully."

"I'm waiting for him to meet me 1-1. So I can destroy him." "Sounds good. A Terror Mail then arrived. "Who is it?" "Drago- it just says "Payback is coming". We need to recruit some more." "Snotlout?" "Good idea." We then untied Snotlout. 'What are you doing man? When I get up, I'm going to hurt you. Oh- hi Astrid, thanks for kidnapping me.'

"Snotlout, how do you fancy joining us?" 'I thought about it, and I decided not to- not my kind of place this. I like warm places with open fires." 'Pity you don't get a choice.' Heather then attached a probe to him. "I thought you only had 3." "When I said that, I had 3 on me. I had some more here." Before the Bewilderbeast could make the probe take effect though, Hiccup and Toothless arrived, shooting at us.

"Heather, Bonecrusher, deal with him!" They then flew up into the air on Astrid's orders. When we turned around though, Snotlout had gone, with Hiccup flying away. "I'll get you for that!" 'Yeah- good luck with that. I'll see you later, ok?' Astrid then flew off after him, and Stormfly fired spines in a circle, which clipped the back of Toothless' wing, making him dive towards the ocean. "I'll get him later." She then returned.

"What do we do then?" "We bide our time. He'll be back- he wants you, remember?" "His Dragon's an Alpha- Stormfly won't listen to me then."

"We cover her ears up. If she can't hear the call of the new Alpha, she'll only listen to the current one." "Does that work?" "Don't know- it's my best idea though."

Heather then came up with something. "How about the probe?" "What about it?" "Put the probe on Stormfly and the Night Fury's power won't be strong enough. Coupled with the orders from our Alpha." "Good thought Heather. If it doesn't work, we should be able to back off." "So we're going after them tomorrow?"

"No- we're going after the Dragon Academy." "Good call Astrid." "That will distract them. Also, they'll struggle for backup then." "Is that where they keep all the resources?" "A lot of them. There's a B-Team of Riders there, trained by me when I was weak and stupid. They won't fight me." "Good."

The next morning, we were up before dawn to go to the Dragon Academy. "Right- here's how it works. When we get there, you're going to give me Stormfly Astrid." "Of course my liege- I must never disobey an Alpha. Bonecrusher, you go after the outside and arena of the Academy- make sure you set everything on fire for maximum attention. Heather, you crush everything inside."

We then flew off. When we arrived, a smaller Viking saw us. "Hey Astrid- we're working hard just like you wanted." "Gustav, Hiccup said to destroy the Academy- it's attracting too much attention." "He'd never do that." Astrid then kicked him in the head and my Bewilderbeast took control of his Monsterous Nightmare.

We then got to work with Meatlug setting everything on fire, while Windshear destroyed everything inside the Academy. Astrid then spotted something. "Dragon Riders coming. Everybody, move out." We then left, having completely wrecked the whole academy, just as the Dragon Riders approached.

That evening, under my instructions, Astrid fashioned a chain out of the metal we salvaged from what was left of the Academy we destroyed. "Twist it through, and we're done- a big new chain." "Astrid, you still have the Dragon Heart?" "Of course." "Put the Dragon Heart on the end of the chain. Then put it on."

She then did that. "What does it do anyway?" "The Dragon Heart gives you the power of being able to imitate any dragon's call. That includes the Bewilderbeast." "So it will make the Bewilderbeast's call stronger than that Night Fury?" "In theory. If it doesn't, we can at least withdraw safely." "Yeah. I'm not going to let this get damaged." "Good."

The next day, we flew out early. "Right team, today we take Berk. Heather, Bonecrusher, you two distract Hiccup and the Night Fury. We'll go and destroy Berk." We then flew to Berk. Annoyingly, Finn flew directly into our path. "If you want me to spare your life, move"' 'Astrid, what happened here? I heard you were independent and strong.'

"I am! I'm independently telling Stormfly Single Spine Shot!" Stormfly then released a spine which impaled Finn's leg to his dragon. 'I can't move.' "Good." We then flew past, and as we did, Astrid kicked him in the back of the head. We then flew into Berk, and came face-to-face with Valka. 'What has happened to you

Astrid?'

"I'm being independent. Stormfly, Spine Circle." Stormfly then showed off her new skill by creating a circle of spines and throwing them at Valka, who dodged. 'Cloudjumper, fight back.' Before Cloudjumper got the chance to fight back, we were distracted by a massive explosion. "That'll be Bonecrusher destroying the armory."

'What? You'reâ€¦' "Destroying Berk. Then it will be rebuilt in our image, with statues of us two in the centre of the village." 'You're sounding evil now.' "Because evil is what I am. I was weak until I was shown the truth. I didn't want to see it, but I'm glad I did." Valka then noticed the gem around Astrid's neck.

'The Dragon Heart?' "You know about this?" 'Yes- I do. I've read all about it- it's said to be the rarest gem in the world.' "Looks good on me." She then started brushing her hair in mid-air. 'Evilness has many effects. Ego is just one of them.' "Can't help it when I'm so beautiful. The thing is though, I can still fight."

She then springboarded off of Stormfly, and kicked Valka in the face, dazing her. We then saw buildings being set on fire in the distance, and we cornered Hiccup outside his home. "Two on one. I look forward to seeing how you escape this one." 'You'll just have to watch to know. Now!' A load of tiny (and an old) Dragon Riders then surrounded us. 'Meet the Berk Auxillarary. Or as we call them, Astrid's Team. Remember?'

Astrid then punched the old one, while I threw another one across the ground. "I do. I should have left when I had the chance. You won't fool me any longer though." 'Astrid, we're' "I don't want to hear it! I am independent. I am strong, You can't dominate me any longer. Stormfly, I want him dead. Listen to the Alpha- your Alpha." The Dragon Heart then shone red.

'Hey bud, show them a real Alpha.' Toothless then roared, and multiple dragons flew over. Stormfly didn't react though. 'What is going on here?' "The Dragon Heart. With this, I am an Alpha. Hey Toothless, you remember killing his Dad?" Toothless then bared his teeth at her. 'Whaty have you done to her? This isn't Astrid.'

I then stroked the back of her head. 'She has no mind anymore- she belongs to me. 'Bud, destroy the Dragon Heart.' Toothless blasted the Dragon Heart, and it smashed, pieces embedding in Astrid's chest. 'Good aim bud- let's go Astrid.' Astrid's eyes then turned red. 'What in Thor's name is that?' The Dragon Heart then rebuilt itself, with the original pieces still embedded in Astrid's chest.

"Your grave is being dug deeper and deeper. The Dragon Heart can never be destroyed. No matter what happened to it, it always comes back. As for Astrid, that's just her making a decision. She's decided to destroy you." "Embrace the hate." Dagur then flew in on his Thunderdrum. 'Aim for that traitor Skylar.' He aimed for me, but Astrid rolled off of Stormfly, and I flew away on her, leaving the Thunderdrum to destroy Hiccup's home.

"That's a shame- I wanted to destroy it." I then picked Astrid up again, and, reverting back to her softer voice (her voice had become much harsher after committing to us), turned around to Toothless. 'Please Toothless- embrace the hateâ€¦ for me." We then flew off.
